

Paula is coming... Metropolitan Cooking Show 2011

BY MAMMALENA - APRIL 10, 2011

POSTED IN: FOOD JUNKIE, OUT & ABOUT ATLANTA

Paula is coming... Paula is coming... Paula Deen that is!

The Atlanta Metropolitan Cooking and Entertaining Show is April 30th thru May 1st, and I look forward to being one of the first in line - and this time with a crew!

Paula Deen, The Neelys, Giada... will be in the house, amongst many others!

Look forward to awesome local treats, great foods to taste, cooking demonstrations, nifty cookware to take home with you - and so much more!

I thoroughly enjoyed this Show a few years ago... and I'll list a few goodies below!

Tasty Stuff: The 3 Sisters POPS Popcorn Truffles, Beautiful (and tasty) Cupcake Trees, Savory Spice Combinations for your meats, nuts, or anything else that does well with a decent sprinkle.

Bee-Bops Party Wear - who said an apron couldn't double as lingerie? These custom designed aprons and party wear make great gifts!

Hot Squeeze! So good! This company has gone from food stand to trade show to grocery store shelves. It's heaven on a piece of Salmon!

The Watermelon & Feta Salad - tasted at a chef's cooking demo. This recipe has become a staple for my hubby, Mr. L and I at food gatherings, cookouts, and more!

Set your calendars to get there this year! You don't want to miss it!

Find out more about the Metropolitan Cooking Show NOW!

